

Palliative Care in Aged Care

This invaluable study day will focus on the delivery of a palliative approach, palliative care, and terminal care for residents in aged care facilities.

Speakers will explore identification of clinical deterioration and strategies for managing physical symptoms including pain, nausea, constipation, and breathlessness.

Additionally, care of the dying resident will be discussed including management of terminal symptoms such as terminal agitation and respiratory secretions.

All written resources provided on the day.

Workshop

Thu 13th June 2024

Lederman Hall
Grampians Health
Queen Elizabeth Centre
102 Ascot Street South
Ballarat

0900-1600hrs

$120

Morning Tea & Lunch Provided
Please register before 07.06.23
<https://www.trybooking.com/1207839>

